THURSDAY, NOV. 19, 1925

A congressman of Kentucky, who was convicted of illegally withdrawing 14,000 cases of liquor and sentenced to two years in the penitentary and fined $10,000 has on appeal had the sentence confined and he has also been re-elected to Congress. He was a member of some potential gang.

Democrats had best steer clear of Gov. Smith, Mayor Walker and Tammany Hall. Southern Democrats will not dance to such music.

Keen to Protect Tobacco Prices

Virginians Sign Millions of Pounds for 1927-1931

S. C. CO-OPS READY

Tobacco farmers of Virginia and South Carolina will organize into larger and stronger marketing associations at the expiration of the present contract of the tri-state pool, if last week's events are any indication of the future.

More than 7,000,000 pounds of dark-fired Virginia tobacco were signed up in the first month's drive of the thirteen months campaign to secure three-fourths of the entire Virginia Production of dark-fired tobacco in an association with a contract to extend from 1927 to 1931 which calls for all the tobacco which is raised upon the farms of the landlord members.

This announcement was made at the meeting of the organization committee for the new association of dark tobacco growers held in Farmville, Va., November 13, the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved that we are satisfied with the result of the campaign for a resign-up of contracts to our association to date and with the report from our directors of the general condition of the affairs of the association and will go forward with renewed efforts to reach our goal as soon as possible."

The present strong position of the dark-fired members of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association was empasied at this meeting of the organization committee. It was pointed out that the cash advances paid by the association, which opened 25 warehouses in Virginia this week, are the highest ever recieved by its members, It was also stated that the present shortage of dark-fired tobacco in Virginia will ed hance the value of the association's holdings of redried tobacco.

MUST HAVE ORGANIZATION

The tobacco farmers of South Carolina will be satisfied at nothing less than a sixty-five per cent sign-up of the South Carolina tobacco crop from 1927 to 1931, according to meetings of delegated farmers from every important tobacco growing county of that state, who named the organization committee for the resign-up campaign and took the first steps in formulating the new five-year contract and organizing a drive for a majority sign-up of the tobacco in the South Carolina Belt, at Florence and Marion last week.

Last week's meetings were regarded as positive evidence of the association's success in South Carolina and as a strong pledge of confidence in its management.

Business men and representative tobacco farmers who were at last week's meetings at Marion and Florence to consider the re-sign-up declared that the co-operative idea is stronger in South Carolina than it ever was before, and has come to stay.

BIGGEST RECEIPTS OF SEASON

Receipts of the tobacco association in the old belt of Virginia and North Carolina doubled last week and will reach approxately 2,000,000 pounds, the largest amount received during one week from any single belt this season.

Recent dispatches from the Washington headquarters of the National Council of Farmers Cooperative Marketing Association described the present demoralization of prices for tobacco on the auction floors of the old belt of Virginia and North Carolina and emphasized the strong position of the tobacco association, which after paying its members a 65 per cent cash advance upon deliveries, has announced a million and a half dollar cash distribution for its old belt members on December 15.

A Sketch of the Surrender Ground

To William Terry Camp,
Wytheville, Va.

Fathers and Brothers:

I promised you at our last splendid meeting at the dear home of our acting adjutant that I would visit the surrender-ground at the opportunity and write to you of what I saw.

My pretty assistant, Miss Ruth Clement, daughter of the editor of the Times-Virginian, drove me out on Monday. The first stop was at North Carolina's noble monument to her dead who rest beneath the soil of her sister State. Here she has inscribed the names of regiments and batteries which laid down arms here that had been victorious on so many hard-fought fields.

It seems fitting that Bryan Grimes, the son should have been on the commission to erect the monument commemorating the valor of Bryan Grimes, the father, as one of the leaders. Here is told the story of the unbelievable sacrifice of a people who gave thousands more than their voting population to die or bear worse than death in defense of our South.

An extraordinary thing is the Raines monument. Under and around the obelisk lie the remains of the fathers who fell on this field and of his family. As the story was told me, to erect this shaft, the son stole funds of the bank in which he was employed at a time today expiates the theft within prison walls. Perverted filial loyalty such as this would seem to prove real mania in this crime. Tablets show where Lee sent out his scouts, where he awaited, sick-hearted with suspense. the return of the messenger to Grant where Grant received and replied to that message.

In a still nook, partly encircled by a marble seat and balustrade, is a row of graves with small headstones, the resting place of the "unknown soldiers" for whom hearts broke in longing and suspense amid Southern pine and cypress, and with them lies a Northern soldier; whether he came from the hills of Vermont or the shores of Cape Code we know not. He fought well and we gave him honorable sepulcher among our own. For the dead there is forgiveness.

Driving on we came to "Old Appomattox." There is the jail where Lee kept his prisoner; there the old courthouse, there a heap of stones, all that is left of the McLean house. The historic appletree was cut to pieces by souvenir fiends; a plate marks its place.

In the fading light of the autumn evening "the scene and all around it," appeared a very picture of desolation. a deadly solitude, a pall as of death itself, rest here. The weight of the agony which lay upon our noble leader and the men who followed him "into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell" fell upon my soul, unlightened by all these years. More than ever before felt what we, as a nation, owe to our defenders, to the feeble remnant left us to cherish. The Lord bless and keep you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace in your latter years.

Your Daughter,
SALLIE FLOYD WATSON,
Acting Chaplain William Terry Camp.—Wytheville Enterprise.

PAMPLIN

We were glad to notice in the Lynchburg News that in order to fill the pulpit left vacant by Rev. Powhatan James, that they have ladies on pulpit committee, and deacons elected for a space of three years only. This your correspondent hereby endorses and think such steps are in accord, with teaching of the Bible, why should deacons or other officers of church serve a lifetime I would be glad if some friend would answer this question.

On Tuesday, Mrs. R. D. Baldwin entertained at dinner in honor of her husband's 72 birthday. Those partaking of Mrs. Baldwin's hospitality were his two brothers, W. A. and A. A. A. H. Gregory Adds New Equipment

A. H. Gregory purchased last week a new Limousine Hearse. Mr. Gregory's new hearse is one of the very latest. The body is covered by the imported french Meritas Cloth which is not efected by climatic conditions. The casket compartment is furnished in polished American Walnut and trimmed with genuine Spanish Leather. The lines of the car are distinctive and Mr. Gregory tells us the riding qualities of the car are equal to those of the very latest sedans.

The securing of the Limousine gives to Appomattox and the surrounding country as ervice that is not surpassed by many in the largest cities of the country. We compliment Mr. Gregory on his foresight and faith in his own town and county, and business.

This coach is also fitted up for comfortable transportation of invalids.

FELT SLUGGISH

Illinois Man Tells About His Relief from Indigestion.

"I used to suffer," says Mr. Walter W. Macdonald, of 711 Fairview Ave., Edwardsville, Ill., "with indigestion, a night feeling in my chest after meals—felt sluggish, lazy and dull and out of sorts. I would be very constipated.

"Some one recommended Black-Draught. I began using it. I found it so very satisfactory I have used it ever since. I wouldn't be without it.

"My work is inside. I do not get as much exercise as I would like, and at times my system gets clogged and I would see the necessity of a good active medicine.

"After one or two doses of Black-Draught, my head clears up and I feel like new.

"For stomach or liver trouble, Black-Draught does good."

Thedford's Black-Draught is recommended by thousands of others for the relief of many common ailments due to a torpid liver, needing laxative or cathartic stimulation. Sold everywhere. 25c. C-3a

MED-O-MINT
A REPUTABLE PURIFIER CLEANSER LAXATIVE APPETIZER

G. T. Tyree, fireman on Southern Railroad cured of indigestion and constipation in less than thirty days. He says:

"I want to say a word in behalf of Med-O-Mint, as I believe its the best cleanser, purifier and appetizer in the world.

I had stomach trouble on and off for a long time, could not eat or sleep and suffered untold misery. Medicine and doctors failed to help me. Nothing gave me any relief until I tried Med-O-Mint. It has cured me. I can now eat anything I want and enjoy it, I sleep good and work every day something I have not done before for years. The first dose gave relief, and in less than thirty days I was well and had gained ten pounds in weight. I recommend Med-O-Mint to everybody. Take my advice, Med-O-Mint, now I take a dose three times a week as a tonic, and regain health and normal strength every day. My whole family takes it occasionally—it is a fine household remedy."

There are thousands who have had the same experience as Mr Tyree and they say Med-O-Mint is the best of all medicines.

Med-O-Mint is a vegetable laxative, cleanser, purifier and appetizer. It has cured when all other med cines failed. It removes the cause and insures normal health, try it. In three sizes 25c 50c and $1.00. Sold by all druggists and rural merchants or sent postpaid on receipt of price, prepaved by

How it heats every room —instead of only one

Because it operates like a furnace instead of a stove, the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater is able to keep the first and second floors of the small home warm and comfortable. It draws the air in at the bottom, heats it and sends it out through the top in such volume that the warm air circulates into every nook and corner of every room. Coal and wood will give the same good result.

Since there is only one fire to feed a set up to work and a saving in fuel bills result from the use of this heating device. It looks like an attractive piece of furniture and reads no bigger. As the outside never gets hot, safe heating for the home with little children is assured.

BILIOUSNESS

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form.

The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, past 80, living at West Graham, Va., says:

"For years I had been suffering with my liver. Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief.

"My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot trouble. I have suffered a lot with it—pains in my side and back, and had headache, caused from extreme biliousness.

"After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the case at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form."

Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver.
